Australia's Southern Cannabis Holdings Launches Global Operations

Southern Cannabis Holdings (SCH) is pleased to announce that it has officially commenced operations in Australia and the United Kingdom.

SCH is a multinational company that builds, integrates and operates businesses in pharmaceutical cannabis markets.

The initial SCH companies include Cannabis Access Clinics Australia's first and largest network of medicinal cannabis clinics, Applied Cannabis Research, a specialist contract research organization dedicated to assisting medicinal cannabis companies, and FreshLeaf Analytics, Australia's leading source of data and information about the medicinal cannabis industry.

Key Highlights:

- Southern Cannabis Holdings launches operations in Australia and the UK
- UK expansion begins with opening of Cannabis Access Clinics in Hartley St, London
- Global expansion to continue in markets where regulations support the pharmaceutical medicinal cannabis sector

Tim Drury, Director of Southern Cannabis Holdings, commented: "Australia was an early adopter of the pharmaceutical style approach to cannabis. We believe that more national markets around the world will follow this framework and our experience in research, data and clinical services puts us in a unique position to unlock value from these markets".

Dr Samuel Murray, Director SCH Europe, commented:

"We are proud to be a key part of Southern Cannabis Holdings' global strategy. We look forward to being able to fill a gap in the newly-opened UK market and provide UK-based doctors and patients with access to research, data and medical treatment based on cannabinoid based therapies".

Southern Cannabis Holdings will continue its strategy of expanding into new markets where the regulations reflect and support the pharmaceutical medicinal cannabis sector.

About Southern Cannabis Holdings: SCH specializes in building and operating cannabis businesses in markets where cannabis is regulated as a pharmaceutical product. SCH companies include:
